

COURSE INFORMATION

---

HOW TO READ COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

SAMPLE:

GEOGRPHY 3330 Environmental Conservation 3 Credits

The relationship of humans and the natural environment. Topics include environmental world views, the effects of eco system disruption, and use and misuse of natural resources.

Components: Class

GE: Social Sciences

Prereqs/Coreqs: P. Junior standing or consent of instructor

Typically Offered: Fall/Spring

This upper level course would be found in the geography section of the course description area. It has a prerequisite of junior or senior standing, and carries social science general education credit.

For further explanation of the different parts of the course description, read on.

COURSE NUMBER

|                            |  |
|----------------------------|--|
| 0000-0990                  | No credit toward degree (does not count toward 120 credit minimum) |
| 1000-2990                  | Lower level undergraduate course                                   |
| 3000-4990                  | Upper level undergraduate course                                   |
| 5000 or higher             | Graduate level course  |
| W-located at end of number | Writing Emphasis course (used in some majors)                      |

CREDITS

The course credits are listed to the right of the course number. One credit hour represents one hour of class time per week plus two hours of out-of-class study.

COURSE TITLE AND COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course title is listed in bold. A brief description of the course is included after the title.

PREREQUISITE OR COREQUISITE DESIGNATION

P. Designates that the course has a prerequisite (a course that must be taken before this class)

C. Designates that the course has a corequisite (a course that must be taken at the same time as this class)

SEMESTER DESIGNATION

Designates which semester the course is offered. This serves as a general guide and does not guarantee that a course will be offered during a particular semester: fall, spring, summer, winterim. Contact the department for current information on course offerings and rotation. Students who find courses without a semester designation should consult with the department chairperson.

GENERAL EDUCATION (LIBERAL STUDIES AREAS) REQUIREMENTS

Lists which general education requirements this course meets

- HUMAN: Carries general education humanities credit
- FINE ARTS: Carries general education fine arts credit
- HISTORY: Carries general education historical perspective credit
- SOCIAL SCIENCE: Carries general education social sciences credit
- NATURAL SCIENCE: Carries general education natural sciences credit
- INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION: Carries general education international education credit
- ETHNIC STUDIES, GENDER STUDIES: Carries general education ethnic and gender studies credit
- ETHNIC: Carries general education ethnic studies credit
- GENDER: Carries general education gender studies credit

OTHER AREAS

- WRITING EMPHASIS AREA: W Carries writing emphasis credit (used in some majors)
- ENTRY: Carries entry credit
- HHP-ACTIVITY: Carries health and human performance activity credit
- HHP-WELLNESS: Carries health and human performance wellness credit