

UWP STUDY (UWPSTUDY)

UWPSTUDY 5010 Conversational American English for International Students 1 Credit

This course will help inbound international students improve their English and function productively while they pursue their studies at UW-Platteville. The course will focus primarily on American culture, including current events, holidays, and campus life. In addition, students will improve their idiomatic, spoken English, and become familiar with American writing conventions.

Components: Class