

GRADUATE STUDENTS ENROLLED IN UNDERGRADUATE CLASSES

Graduate students may take graduate and undergraduate classes concurrently. Undergraduate fees are charged for undergraduate classes and graduate fees are charged for graduate classes. Students should register for graduate courses through graduate registration procedures and undergraduate courses through undergraduate registration procedures.

Note: Undergraduate credits cannot be applied toward the completion of a master's degree. However, undergraduate courses may be used to meet graduate course prerequisites.