Students must complete an approved capstone, internship, or co-op course in consultation with their advisor. The capstone may originate from nearly any academic area as long as it provides an opportunity to demonstrate integrated knowledge across the student's focus area.
Focus Area or Minor		24
BSPS students must declare an accompanying university minor or individualized focus area totaling 24 credits. ^{2,3,4}

¹ The general education world languages requirement may be waived for online degree students (exclusions may apply).

² At least 12 credits of the minor or focus area must be upper division.

³ Coursework in the minor or focus area may not fulfill a BSPS core requirement. Courses that fulfill both a general education and a minor or focus area requirement are permissible.

⁴ If a minor is less than 24 credits, the student must take additional coursework in consultation with their academic advisor to reach 24 credits. Courses for an individualized focus area are determined in consultation with the academic advisor.
