The Pioneers participate in a full range of NCAA Division III sports activities during the academic year. UW-Platteville women compete in eight intercollegiate sports: basketball, cross-country, golf, soccer, softball, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball. Men compete in eight intercollegiate sports: baseball, basketball, cross-country, football, soccer, indoor and outdoor track and field, and wrestling. Platteville is a member institution of the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

UW-Platteville Baraboo Sauk County offers competitive sports opportunities and belongs to the Wisconsin Collegiate Conference. Sport offerings vary but range from Men's Basketball, Women's Volleyball, and Men's & Women's Tennis.

CHILDREN'S CENTER

Phone: 608.342.1260

Website: <https://www.uwplatt.edu/departments/childrens-center> (<https://www.uwplatt.edu/departments/childrens-center/>)

The UW-Platteville Children's Center provides excellent child care services and educational experiences for the children of UW-Platteville students, faculty, staff, and Platteville community members. The Children's Center operates weekdays from 7:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. during the academic year, interim periods and summer session. The Children's Center provides child care and educational opportunities for children ages 6 weeks through 10 years.

Lead teachers, who hold a degree in the field of early childhood, staff the Children's Center classrooms. College students seeking degrees primarily in education or psychology assist the classroom teachers. The Children's Center also serves as a laboratory and research site for students learning about child development and early childhood practices. Located in their own facility north of Doudna Hall, the Children's Center is a state licensed facility and is nationally accredited through NECPA (National Early Childhood Program Accreditation).

A reduced fee is charged to student parents. To be eligible for the student rate, a parent must be registered for at least six credits as an undergraduate student during the academic year or for three credits during the summer session. Graduate students must carry a minimum of five credits and pay segregated fees. If a student is registered for less than the minimum credit load, fees are charged at the faculty/staff/community rate. To request enrollment forms or for further information, call 608.342.1260 or visit us at <https://www.uwplatt.edu/departments/childrens-center> (<https://www.uwplatt.edu/departments/childrens-center/>).

UW-PLATTEVILLE, MAIN CAMPUS

The university community and guests enjoy high quality, nutritious meals in a clean, inclusive and kind environment. Dining Services provides meal plan options for residence hall and commuter students. In addition, students, faculty and staff have the ability to add campus cash to their accounts to be used at all the dining locations on the main campus. As one of the largest student employers on campus, dining services offers flexible work schedules along with advancement and leadership opportunities available to student employees.

Students experiencing food insecurities can also visit our completely student-run food pantry, Pioneer Provisions. All currently enrolled UW-Platteville students are eligible to utilize this service.

UW-PLATTEVILLE BARABOO SAUK COUNTY, THE BLUFF VIEW CAFÉ

Located in the Lange Student Center, the Cafeteria serves weekday lunch, snacks, desserts, and beverages. The Cafeteria is open to the community as well, so come and join us for a meal on campus! Meal plan options are available for students. Students, faculty, and staff can add campus cash to their accounts to be used at the Lange Center Cafeteria as well.

Phone: 608.342.1451

Email: EventReservations@uwplatt.edu

Website: <https://www.uwplatt.edu/department/event-services> (<https://www.uwplatt.edu/department/event-services/>)

The Office of Event Services is a meeting and event planning resource for university space and service users. In partnership with internal and external individuals and groups, the office marshals the many university service providers required to provide the best possible experience for campus visitors. The office also increases the institution's reputation by producing successful and memorable events and ceremonies for the campus and area communities.

EVENT RESERVATIONS

Event Reservations is the starting point for any group or individual wishing to hold an event on campus. This unit manages requests to use facilities on the university campus and guides users in the event planning process.

EVENT PRODUCTIONS

Event Productions provides facility setup, audio and light reinforcement, video equipment, and portable event staging. In addition, Event Production offers a variety of student employment opportunities in all aspects of event production.

CENTER FOR THE ARTS

The UW-Platteville Center for the Arts provides a professional performing arts environment for students to learn about the arts through performance and classroom learning and provides quality performing arts and cultural opportunities for the community and the region, including an annual Performing Arts Series. To learn more about the CFA, please visit <https://www.uwplatt.edu/department/center-arts> (<https://www.uwplatt.edu/department/center-arts/>).

HARRY AND LAURA NOHR GALLERY

Located in the lower level of Ullsvik Hall, the Harry and Laura Nohr Gallery provides students the opportunity to see and experience art works created by students and professional artists of regional and national renown. The gallery, which also hosts artist receptions at least six times a year, is the ideal spot for students to browse during their free time. For more information, please visit <https://www.uwplatt.edu/building/ullsvik-hall> (<https://www.uwplatt.edu/building/ullsvik-hall/>).

UNIVERSITY BOX OFFICE

0510 Ullsvik Hall | (608) 342-1298

The University Box Office (UBO), located on the ground floor of Ullsvik Hall, handles all ticket sales for Athletics and the Center for the Arts. In addition, the UBO sells tickets to many university-wide events and offers a small copy service for meeting organizers.
