

ENGLISH MAJOR, B.S.

FIRST-YEAR COMPOSITION

ENGLISH 1130 and ENGLISH 1230 are prerequisites for most English courses. English majors must complete the first-year composition sequence or earn transfer credit for equivalent courses taken elsewhere BEFORE taking any English course at the 2000-level or above.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

All English majors must earn a "D" or better in the required foreign language courses. Additional information about required courses are in the emphasis areas below. Students already fluent in a second language or for whom English is a second or other language are exempt from this requirement.

PHILOSOPHY REQUIREMENT

All English majors must earn a "C" or better in course(s) taken to fulfill the philosophy requirement. Specific emphasis requirements are explained below.

WRITING PORTFOLIO REQUIREMENT

During the first week of their senior year, all English majors must submit a portfolio in order to graduate. Students with a failing portfolio will be required to meet with the Rhetoric and Composition Committee to discuss a course of action for the improvement of their writing, which may include rewriting portfolio papers and taking additional courses. The requirements for the portfolio are available in the department office.

PREREQUISITES AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS

All literature courses, except ENGLISH 3930 and ENGLISH 3990, count as humanities credit towards the general education requirements. All courses numbered 2000 or above have ENGLISH 1230 as a prerequisite.
