

SPANISH EDUCATION MAJOR, B.A.

The major requires a total of 40 credits with a minimum of 24 credits selected from courses numbered 3000 or higher, including courses in SPANISH 4820 and SPANISH 3830. TEACHING 4060 is an additional requirement of the School of Education (credits do not count toward major). Students who major in Spanish must have a grade point average of no lower than a 2.75 in the Spanish courses they take, and meet the education abroad requirement by completing eight to nine credits in our Education Abroad program at the 3000-4000 level. Similar or comparable cultural experiences could also be accepted.
